Victoria, B.C., June 30th 1885.

MUNICIPALITY OF NORTH COWICHAN.

ROAD TAX BY-LAW, 1885.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the “Road Tax and Statute Labour By-Law, 1880,” be repealed:

Therefore, be it enacted by the Municipal Council of North Cowichan:—

1. That, on and after the passing of this By-Law, a Road Tax of two (2) dollars per head be levied on the first day of June, in each and every year, on all male residents over the age of eighteen (18) years within the Municipality of North Cowichan; such tax to be applied to the construction or repairs of the municipal roads and public works in such manner and at such time as the Council may direct.

2. When any person refuses or neglects to pay Road Tax, such tax may be recovered at the suit or instance of the Municipal Collector, before any Justice of the Peace, together with all costs of the proceedings, and the whole amount may be recovered by distress on the goods and chattels, wherever they may be found, of the person liable to pay the said tax.

3. The Municipal Collector may, by himself or his agent, demand from any person (who is a resident of and liable to pay Road Tax within such Municipality) the production of his receipt for same, and on neglect or refusal of any such person to produce, when so demanded, a Road Tax receipt lawfully issued to him, the Collector may, by himself or his agent, levy the amount of Road Tax by distress on the goods and chattels of the person so neglecting or refusing.

4. Every merchant, farmer, or employer of labour shall pay the annual Road Tax, as the same becomes due by any person or parties in their or his employment, and may deduct the amount so paid on account of such person from the amount of salary or wages due or to become due to him from such employer, upon production and delivery of the receipt thereupon to such person. Every such merchant, farmer, trader or employer of labour shall furnish to the Collector, when requested by him so to do, a list of all persons in his employ liable to pay the said tax.

5. The “Road Tax and Statute Labour By-Law, 1880,” is hereby repealed.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this By-Law the Reeve and Councillors for the time being shall be exempt from liability to pay the said tax imposed by this By-Law.

Reconsidered and finally passed the Municipal Council this twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.
